

Why Does He Do That?

Learn the eight senses which form foundation skills for interpreting sensory information

Misunderstood or unrecognized sensory differences often contribute to challenging behaviours; up to 80% of students with FASD have trouble with either over or under reacting to sight, touch, taste, smell, movement, joint/ muscle awareness and internal sensation.

Hear about Current Research

Learn how to help your child avoid what's bothering them and get more of what helps them

How to make simple changes to home & routine
Multisensory tools and equipment ideas

Tuesday, November 26
6:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m.

Catulpa Community Support Services
17345 Leslie Street, Newmarket ON

Presenter Shirley Sutton B.Sc. is an Occupational Therapist with 40 years of extensive clinical experience with children with special needs. She is also the co-author of Building Bridges Through Sensory Integration - Occupational Therapy for Children with Autism and other Pervasive Developmental Disorders.

To register, please contact amcmaster@catulpa.on.ca or 905-235-8001 ext. 4410