Sibshops are a celebration of the many lifelong contributions made by brothers and sisters of people with special health and developmental needs.

The day will include sessions on:

- Sibling issues across the lifespan
- What parents and service providers can do to minimize sibs' concerns and maximize their opportunities
- Sibling Workshops - Getting Started
- Planning and implementing a local Sibshop as well as a session with a panel of local adult brothers and sisters who will discuss life with siblings who have special needs
