

Role summary:

Individuals who wish to be involved with the governance of Children's Treatment Network (CTN) but are unable to make a full commitment as a board member can apply to become a community member of CTN's Audit and Finance or Quality Committee. This is an ideal opportunity for those who are unable to commit to the hours required as a board member or individuals without board experience who wish to gain skills in that area. Community committee members must meet the same basic requirements as board members. They will be required to serve on at least one board committee and are welcome to attend board meetings as a guest. Members are eligible to go through the process of becoming a fully participating board member if desired, as positions become available.

CTN's vision of building brighter futures together includes everyone. As part of our commitment to inclusivity, diversity, equity and accessibility, our goal is a governance structure that reflects the communities we serve, including individuals with disabilities, those who identify as Black, Indigenous or persons of colour, members of the LGBTQ2S+ community, those with lived experience as a family member of an individual with a disability and others.
